

HAEN RE-ELECTED TO PORTS ASSOCIATION BOARD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 6, 2015

(Green Bay, WI) – Dean Haen, director of Brown County Port & Resource Recovery has been re-elected as board Vice President for the American Great Lakes Ports Association (AGLPA). Haen will serve a two year term.

The AGLPA represents the interests of the public port authorities and promotes maritime commerce on the U.S. side of the Great Lakes. The organization focuses on working with legislators on issues important to the shipping industry including harbor dredging, invasive species, infrastructure renewal and funding for maritime research.

“I am grateful for the opportunity to continue to serve the AGLPA,” said Haen. “I’m looking forward to adopting our first association strategic plan during this next term that will serve as a guiding document for the next five years.”

Members of the AGLPA are from 12 Great Lakes Ports, including the Port of Green Bay. The AGLPA is also a founding member of the Great Lakes Seaway Partnership, an organization focused on increasing public awareness and understanding of ports and commercial shipping.

For more information on the Port, visit www.portofgreenbay.com or Twitter @PortofGreenBay.

###

Media Contacts:

Kristen Paquet
Leonard & Finco Public Relations
(920) 965-7750
kpaquet@LFpublicrelations.com
www.LFpublicrelations.com

Dean Haen, Director
Port of Green Bay
(920) 492-4953